

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HAER
ID,
27-MURT.V,
1-

Murtaugh Bridge
Spanning Snake River Near Murtaugh, Idaho
Jerome County (to Twin Falls County), Idaho

HAER No. ID-1

Documentation: 8 photographs July, 1980
8 data pages

Photographer: C. W. Dudley

- ID-1-1 Approach view from North showing timber deck and deck railing.
- ID-1-2 Approach view from South showing lattice railing and connection to floor beam system.
- ID-1-3 General elevation showing placement of pier on river "till."
- ID-1-4 General view showing bridge in its setting during high river flows.
- ID-1-5 General elevation showing South access road and abutment location.
- ID-1-6 Detail of truss and cross-bracing showing masonry footing and pier arrangement for approach spans, and for main truss stringers and deck.
- ID-1-7 Detail of main truss substructure showing typical riveted connections and "lattice" construction.
- ID-1-8 Detail elevation of main truss connections, deck railing support and main pier arrangement.